Our cost-effective intermodal transportation services will save you time and money.

UNI International worldwide offices and agents deliver rail intermodal shipping services tailored to meet your needs. We are experienced intermodal logistics professionals who will work with you to determine your specific intermodal transport requirements and then manage each shipment from door-to-door transportation and documentation.