

{gallery}HeavyLifting{/gallery}

Lifting and positioning, heavy lifts for break bulk, static pieces, LCL, FCL and project cargoes.

UNI International has a broad history of service to the oil and gas industry. UNI International has proven it has what it takes to meet the growing global demand for the industries served projects. We have the proven expertise to perform in all facets of the industry in getting material and equipment to the most remote locations throughout the globe. Our powerful and diverse contract rates allow us to provide the movement of heavy lift cargoes providing our customers to meet the unique requirements of the job at hand.

We offer superior services in the handling of heavy lift and over-dimensional project shipments anywhere in the world with our versatile real of services. UNI International will exceed your expectations for reliable and safe carriage of your cargo.

As the global demand for effective and reliable ocean transportation increases, UNI International offers efficient and quality solutions for the challenges that lay ahead.

Our international experience combined with knowledgeable local team members ensures that even the largest, oversized pieces of equipment are transported safely, efficiently and on time, even in the toughest of environments.